PRICE	Submit - Call for Details	APS SUBSTATION	The 120-acre APS substation will be one of the largest substations in Western USA. APS acquired the land in Q1 of 2025 and is in the process of completing their line siting study with the AZCC. Based on preliminary site plans, there is capacity for seven 500kv lines, thirteen 250kv lines, and seven 69kv lines at this substation. After AZCC approval, the project will start construction and take 2-3 years to complete construction. APS refers to the substation in their 10-year Transmission System Plan as TS35. The proximity to this major piece of infrastructure presents an exceptional opportunity for data center and battery developers alike. The owner has data center zoned sites available today.
COMMISSION	Seller is exclusively represented by Nathan & Associates and Land Advisors Organization; therefore, Seller is not offering or agreeing to pay a brokerage fee-commission to any outside broker to represent Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller will pay a brokerage fee/commission to a licensed real estate broker that represents an End-User that acquires land from Seller ("End-User's Broker"), provided End-user's Broker is identified in writing prior to execution of the purchase agreement (or as otherwise required by applicable law).	OFFSITE CONSTRUCTION SCHEDULE	Please see attached exhibits.

BUCKEYE EMPLOYMENT

Rapid Growth and Major Employers

Buckeye, Arizona, is one of the fastest-growing cities in the United States, experiencing notable population and economic growth. The city has attracted several large employers and seen significant expansion across distribution, manufacturing, retail, and healthcare sectors. Notable employers include Rehrig Pacific, Exxon Mobil, Arizona Public Service, Blue Polymers, and Ross Dress for Less Distribution. Buckeye's strategic location along Interstate 10 and State Route 85, future expansion plans for Buckeye Airport, and access to the Union Pacific Railroad make it an attractive destination for businesses and developers.

Growing Employment Base & Labor Force

Commercial activity in Buckeye is rising, with approximately 9 million SF of commercial development underway or slated to begin in 2025. The pipeline includes approximately 8.8 million SF of total development activity underway, including:

- 7.5 million SF active industrial development (Q1 2025)
- 1.3 million SF active retail and service development (Q1 2025)

Source: City of Buckeye

The city has access to a labor force of 1 million people, and 92% of Buckeye's resident workforce is employed outside the city, indicating a large pool of skilled workers who may consider local employment to reduce commute times.

The existing top employers in the City of Buckeye and the adjacent cities are shown below:

Active Developments

Rehrig Pacific Company: Under construction in their first phase with a 260,000-square-foot facility. Rehrig manufactures integrated sustainable solutions for the supply chain and environmental waste industries.

Ross Dress for Less: Constructing a 1.7 million-square-foot distribution center.

Blue Polymers: Under construction on a recycled plastics production facility, scheduled to open in the second half of 2025. The 162,000-square-foot Buckeye plant is expected to create over 60 permanent local jobs.

TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM

BUCKEYE IS EMERGING AS A MAJOR CENTER FOR DISTRIBUTION AND LOGISTICS.

Buckeye provides a strong transportation network with access to seven major interstates and highways, over 16 miles of Union Pacific Railroad, a 700 acre municipally owned airport and within 35 miles to Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport.

TRANSPORTATION UPGRADES

Improvements in the area include Interstate 10 expansion and planning efforts for Interstate 11 and SR-30.

Interstate 10 plans include expansion between Verrado Way and State Route 85 and pavement rehabilitation. ADOT's expansion plans include adding a lane of travel in each direction and improving the Miller Road and Watson Road Interchanges. Additional information regarding these improvements can be found here.

The I-11 is a planned intermountain west corridor that will connect Arizona to Nevada. The grander vision for I-11 is to become a CANAMEX corridor connecting Canada to Mexico, although planning efforts are still in the early stages. Most recently, the I-11 Record of Decision was recorded in November of 2021. Please click here for additional information related to Interstate 11.
